Property Description

Can you imagine getting up every morning and being able to have a coffee on the terrace of your apartment with sea views? Make it possible in this property in Playas de Fornells.

It is renovated, has charm and is located in a very quiet and well-kept community. Its decoration and style in white tones give it a feeling of spaciousness and light that make the apartment a treat! It consists of two bedrooms (one double and one single), with fitted wardrobes, bathroom with shower, open kitchen with bar and living-dining room with fireplace and access to the covered terrace with views of the sea and the beautiful gardens of the community.

An ideal property to enjoy the sunsets without having to leave home!
